Course Credit:	1
Resources/Text:	Web Design: Introductory Concepts and Techniques, Third Edition HTML: Introductory Concepts and Techniques, Fifth Edition
Instructor Name:	Mr. Denigan
Class Location:	Room 7-205
E-Mail:	imdeniga@volusia.k12.fl.us

My responsibilities as your instructor:

- Treat you with respect and care as an individual
- Provide the students with an orderly classroom environment
- Provide the necessary structure and discipline
- Provide the appropriate motivation

Course Description:

This course is designed to provide students with opportunities to acquire and apply foundational skills related to web design.

Grading Procedures:

This course will follow the school-wide grading scale as displayed in the student handbook. Grades are determined by the total number of points accumulated by the end of a grading period. Assignments are given a certain point value – for example, classwork might be worth 10 points, while a project might be worth 100 points. Most assessments will be authentic whereby students engage in real life projects.

Classroom Rules:

1. The Three R's: Respect for self, Respect others, Responsibility for your actions
2. Listen carefully to instructions
 - a. Students will not talk while someone else has the floor. If a question is asked in class, DO NOT call out! I'll call on who I want to answer the question.
3. Be trustworthy and honest
4. Be cooperative and on task
 - a. Students will not be permitted to leave class for any reason other than an emergency.

Consequences for not following expected behavior:

1. Verbal Warning
2. Students Teacher Conference
3. Referral

Classroom Policies & Procedures:

Entering the classroom/Beginning of class

- All students should come to class prepared for the day's activities. Bring with you a positive attitude and any materials needed to complete the class activities for that day.
- Please use the restroom before class begins.
- Students must be in their seat when the tardy bell rings. If you are tardy 3 times you will receive a referral.
- A daily schedule will be displayed in the classroom so you know what to expect that day. This will be your guide for the entire class.

Middle of Class

- After new information is covered, students will begin implementing new skills through daily projects to reinforce new content.

When you are absent

- Check class Edmodo page for assignments.
- Any work missed from daily activities will be available for you in Edmodo
- Students get one day to turn in work for every day they are absent.
- No late homework is accepted

Academic dishonesty: Students are expected to maintain academic honesty and integrity at all times throughout their high school career. Academic dishonesty (as in cheating or plagiarism) is not acceptable. Cheating includes copying another student's work and submitting it as one's own. Plagiarism is the use of another person's original ideas or writing without giving credit to the true author. A student who engages in any form of academic dishonesty will be subject to the loss of credit for the work in question and parents will be contacted.

Absolutely no communication devices out while instruction is taking place.

Remain in your assigned seat unless you have permission to get up. Throw scraps away at the end of the period on your way out.

You are expected to use your class time wisely. Any work not completed during the allowed class time needs to be made up before or after school. I expect you to use your class time for this subject. Working on other class assignments, unauthorized internet surfing, games playing are not permitted.

Talk only when permitted. Be aware of the situation. Since quiet talking is allowed in some situations and speaking to the entire group without raising your hand may be allowed in others. I will remind you once and expect compliance.

Use polite speech and body language. Unkind teasing and impolite behavior is unacceptable parents will be contacted immediately.

Follow the teacher's directions the first time. Listen to my instructions and I guarantee your success in this class.

Assignments/Homework. Assignments need to be turned in to the homework folder on the table at the front of the room. It is your responsibility to get your homework in the folder. Any work left lying on the table or printer will not be graded.

End of class dismissal

- I dismiss the class, not the clock
- Before dismissal all students must be in their assigned seats and the area around your seat must be neat.
- Push in your chair before leaving the classroom.

Mr. Denigan reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time as needed.
